Doreen,

Hanover declined to quote either the property or the automobile. They feel they cannot compete. Travelers will not consider the automobile as this is not a class of business they are looking to write. Further, Travelers rates, even if they could consider, would not be competitive. Hartford is reviewing the property and they say they will not quote the auto.

I was hoping to get the declination straight from the company, but still have not received. Anyway, I will send something more formal later.

Best,
Todd
